RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE VTF AND DONORS

19. The formal relationship between the VTF and donors commences when a donor makes a formal declaration of an intention to contribute to the VTF. This relationship ends when the formal obligations between the two parties are fully met.
20. Donors are important stakeholders in the continued sustainability of the VTF hence the relationship between the VTF and donors should be based on a clear delineation of each party's expectations captured in a formal agreement as necessary.
21. On a yearly basis or any other determined interval, the VTF shall issue calls for contributions to the VTF. The VTF's calls for contributions inform donors of the VTF's objectives, the nature of projects it seeks to fund and the VTF contact point for contributions.
22. On the basis of such VTF calls for contributions, donors will contact the ATT Secretariat and enter into discussions regarding the transfer of contributions to the VTF. Where necessary, this discussion will culminate in a formal agreement between the VTF and a donor. Depending on the extent of donor funding commitment, the agreement can take the form of a stand-alone agreement or a long term framework or partnership agreement.
23. Contributions and donations to the VTF can be made throughout the year.
24. For management purposes, the ATT Secretariat shall strive to have standardized agreements with donors covering the following aspects:
 - a. The exact donation amount.
 - b. The date by which donations shall be transferred.
 - c. Arrangements on bank charges levied on funds transfer as well as currency fluctuation where applicable.
 - d. Donors are encouraged to make unconditional grants but, where conditions are set, the ATT Secretariat and Selection Committee will ensure that they are respected.  - i. Funds to be used in accordance with the OECD DAC guidelines for development cooperation.
 - ii. Submission of annual substantive and financial reports by VTF to donors.
25. The ATT Secretariat must ensure that donors are provided with all information necessary to facilitate the transfer of funds, including the VTF bank account details.
26. The ATT Secretariat must ensure that accounting reports to donors are submitted in compliance with agreed reporting times.
27. Unless specified otherwise by donors, funds that are not used or have been paid back by grant recipients should be fully accounted for and kept in reserve for the next VTF cycle.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE VTF AND BENEFICIARIES

28. On an annual basis or any other determined interval, the Chairperson of the VTF Selection Committee shall issue calls for project proposals. To be eligible for consideration by the Selection Committee, project proposals to the VTF must be submitted in accordance with the VTF administrative procedures.

29. Once a project proposal has been approved, the ATT Secretariat shall enter into discussions with the grant recipient with a view to setting up the project's control framework to facilitate the transfer of funds as well as the project's reporting, monitoring and evaluation mechanisms. On finalisation of a sound project control framework, a Grant Agreement shall be concluded between the ATT Secretariat and the grant recipient.

30. Each Grant Agreement will detail the terms of the relationship between the ATT Secretariat and the recipient. Furthermore each Grant Agreement will cover the following aspects:

- a. Details of the beneficiary State and any implementing partner involved, with their roles in the project clearly defined.
- b. A Project Schedule.
 - i. Duration of the project with a start date and an end date.
 - ii. Project objectives, outputs and outcomes.

- d. Indication of the extent of the beneficiary State's in-kind contribution (e.g. personnel, office space, etc.) to the project to offset certain budget line items normally applicable to civil society organisations.
- e. Project Controls (Internal Control Mechanisms):
 - i. Identification of key risks and risk management strategy.

- ii. Project's internal controls.
- iii. Project's monitoring, evaluation and auditing mechanisms.
- iv. Reporting intervals.
- v. Commitment to auditing when necessary.

31. As a pre-condition to finalising the Grant Agreement for signature, the ATT Secretariat will require each grant recipient to provide the following: all relevant banking details, a completed Project Schedule, and a memorandum of understanding or other document detailing the arrangement between the beneficiary State and the Project Implementing Partner(s), if applicable.

32. For large scale or multi-year projects, the VTF may effect payments in three instalments i.e.:

- a. 40 % after signing of the Grant Agreement.
- b. 40 % upon receipt and approval of an interim report to the VTF.
- c. 20 % upon receipt and approval of a final report to the VTF.

33. For smaller projects, the ATT Secretariat and the grant recipient may agree on a flexible grant payment method, which is not linked to reporting.

34. VTF funds shall only be disbursed after the Grant Agreement has been signed by the ATT Secretariat and the authorized representative of the grant recipient.

35. Funds shall only be transferred to the beneficiary State or to an entity authorised by it. Funds can only be directly transferred by the ATT Secretariat to a single payee identified by the beneficiary State and partial payment to multiple payees is not permitted. In all cases, the beneficiary State shall assume the entire responsibility for compliance with all terms and conditions imposed under the Grant Agreement.

36. Within 60 days after completion of a project, the beneficiary State(s) shall submit a final report that should be made publicly available via the ATT website.

37. If there are funds that are unused after completion of a project, such funds must be refunded to the VTF within 30 days.

VTF'S SELECTION PROCESS

38. The VTF project selection process shall be guided by the VTF Terms of Reference with particular reference to "The General Principles for Implementation Assistance Projects under the ATT Voluntary Trust Fund", which contains principles for the assessment of eligibility and selection of projects, and the Guidance for the Selection Process approved by the Selection Committee.

39. The VTF selection process shall have two phases as discussed below.

Phase One

40. The ATT Secretariat shall conduct a pre-screening of all project proposals received by the due date to assess compliance with the application requirements and/or Principles for Eligibility.

41. The ATT Secretariat shall, for consideration by the Selection Committee, prepare a shortlist of eligible project proposals and prepare pre-evaluations taking into account the Guidance for the Selection Process as decided upon by the VTF Selection Committee, relying on outside expertise as appropriate and needed. For all other project proposals an explanation should be presented why they have not been shortlisted.

42. To the extent possible the ATT Secretariat will endeavour to advise the Selection Committee of any overlap/duplication with projects funded by UNSCAR or other entities.

Phase Two

43. At this stage, the Selection Committee shall consider the shortlisted project proposals by applying the VTF Terms of Reference, including its Attachment containing Principles for the eligibility and selection of project proposals, and the Guidance for the Selection Process based thereon, which include:

- a. Qualitative assessment of project proposals in terms of projects objectives, output and outcomes as presented on the proposal.
- b. Eligible projects by Signatory States and other States requiring assistance may also be considered if the applicant has shown clear and unambiguous political commitment to accede to the ATT and is able to show how the envisaged project will help to meet envisaged milestones and ultimately lead to speeding up (or enabling) the process of ratification/accession.
- c. If two or more project proposals are considered to be of equal quality after thorough assessment against the qualitative criteria as established by the Selection Committee, priorities established by the Conference of States Parties, including geographic requirements, shall be taken into account in the allocation of funds to beneficiary States.
- d. Consideration of any information on projects proposals overlap/duplication with other projects.

44. As required, shortlisted project proposals could be considered against OECD DAC guidelines for development cooperation, as well as any other conditionalities applied to contributions.

45. The Selection Committee shall decide on the list of project proposals to be funded by the available VTF budget per project cycle.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF VTF GRANTS

46. For purposes of accountability and uniformity in the management of grants, the set of standard grant conditions listed below should be imposed on all VTF grants.

Duration and Implementation Period

47. Unless agreed otherwise, all VTF projects shall have an implementation period of a maximum of one year starting immediately after the signing of a Grant Agreement between the ATT Secretariat and the grant recipient. Projects of longer duration and later commencement date shall also be considered.

VTF Budget Cap

48. A budget cap for project proposals shall be set on an annual basis and included in the call for project proposals. If nothing else is decided, the default cap is US$100,000. A reasonable adjustment can be decided by the Selection Committee upon a case by case basis for project proposals by several applicants (joint project proposals) or for proposals with multiple beneficiaries. In this case, early consultations [with the Selection Committee through the ATT Secretariat]are encouraged before the application is submitted.

Project's Co-funding

49. The VTF shall be open to co-funding of projects. However, VTF applicants are encouraged to secure a project funding partner prior to applying to VTF for project co-funding and required to do so by the time the Selection Committee considers the proposal for approval.

VTF Grants Payment

50. Approved funds shall only be paid after a Grant Agreement has been signed by the ATT Secretariat and a duly authorized representative of the grant recipient, with all relevant project control documents completed and attached to the Grant Agreement.

51. The right to a grant is forfeited if a grant recipient fails to submit the required documents that are a precondition of signing of the Grant Agreement (see paragraph 31) within the timeframe stipulated by the VTF.

52. In the absence of a satisfactory explanation, if project reports demonstrate lack of progress or progress falling short of agreed schedule of deliverables, the VTF may withhold further grant transfers. This will, however, only be done after consultation with the affected grant recipient and the Selection Committee Chairperson.

53. Further grants transfer shall only resume once a satisfactory corrective intervention has been carried out and evidence on the ground supports success of intervention.

Reporting Requirements

54. VTF grant recipients must comply with the reporting requirements set out in Grant Agreements. These may include the following:

- a. Interim report(s) accounting for project activity progress and financial expenditure.
- b. Final report to be submitted within 60 days after completion of a project. The final report should include a description and evaluation of the project outcomes, achievements and impacts as well as outline possible shortcomings and recommendations for further actions (substantive report). Furthermore, the final report should include a detailed financial report on expenditures and balances (financial report) and copies of the associated expenditure verifications. Final reports shall be made publicly available via the ATT website.

55. Interim reports shall be used by the VTF as one of the tools to monitor progress in projects.
56. Furthermore, interim reports will assist the VTF to identify projects at risk of time and cost overrun. Projects with identified risks shall be carefully monitored by the VTF to ensure that project risks are properly mitigated in time by the grant recipient.
57. Submitted reports shall be in a prescribed format based on the project's schedule of activities and deliverables as well as detailed budget breakdown.
58. All reports, interim or final, shall be signed by the authorized representative of the grant recipient.
59. Failure by the VTF grant recipient to, without good cause, submit mandatory projects reports may result in one or combination of the following:
- a. VTF's withholding of subsequent installments.
 - b. VTF's recovery of part or all of the grant already transferred to the recipient.

Repayment of unused funds

60. Upon completion of a project, the grant recipient must repay to VTF any unused funds to the extent that these funds exceed the estimated cost of collection, as determined by the VTF.
61. Repayment is to be made to the VTF, without further delay, with the repayment properly referenced to the project that the funds were used for.

Extension of the period for using the funds

62. If a grant recipient is unable to use funds within the project implementing period, the recipient may apply for an extension of the time in which to use the grant. The application for an extension of time must be submitted to the ATT Secretariat as soon as the recipient realizes that an extension is necessary and no later than 30 days before the End Date of the project.
63. On consideration of an extension motivation, previously submitted interim reports and other relevant factors, the ATT Secretariat shall decide either to grant or not to grant the extension after consultation with the Selection Committee Chairperson.

Grant Funds Recovery

64. A grant recipient bears responsibility to comply with all terms and conditions of the grant contained in the Grant Agreement. Failure by the grant recipient to fulfill the grants obligations may result in the VTF's recovery of all or part of the grant. Grounds for the VTF's recovery of the grant include the following:

- a. Funds have not been used within the specified time. Following consultation with the grant recipient, a repayment demand may be made for funds that are not used within the period specified in the decision.
- b. The grant has been used for matters other than the intended purpose. A repayment demand may be made for funds that have been used for purposes other than those specified in the Grant Agreement.
- c. The recipient has neglected the obligation to report. If a grant recipient fails to comply with obligations to submit an interim report and/or a final report, the VTF may demand repayment of all or part of the grant.
- d. The recipient has knowingly submitted incorrect information. If the VTF becomes aware that a grant recipient has knowingly submitted incorrect information, in particular information that has a significant bearing on the viability or effectiveness of the project, the VTF may demand repayment of all or part of the grant. This applies regardless of whether or not the funds have been used.

65. An application concerning deferment of recovery may be submitted by the grant recipient to the VTF no later than 14 days before the day on which repayment of the demanded funds is to be made. The ATT Secretariat takes decisions on deferment after consultation with the Selection Committee Chairperson.

66. An application concerning adjustment of recovery is to be submitted to the VTF and must have been received no later than 14 days before the day on which repayment of the demanded funds is to be made. In taking a decision on request for adjustment of recovery after consultation with the Selection Committee Chairperson, the ATT Secretariat shall take into account all relevant facts.

PROCEDURES FOR PROJECTS' MONITORING, EVALUATION AND AUDITING

67. The adoption of sound and appropriate governance procedures will help ensure the sustainability of the VTF's funding and operations. For purposes of achieving accountability and transparency in the implementation of VTF funded projects, all projects shall be subject to monitoring and evaluation procedures.

68. The project design information submitted by the grant recipient as a prerequisite for the Grant Agreement shall form the basis of project's monitoring, evaluation and auditing. As part of the Grant Agreement, grant recipients are required to institute effective internal control measures to ensure realization of the project's substantive goals and financial targets. It is this project information that VTF shall use as a monitoring and evaluation yardstick.

69. Both the VTF and the recipient shall, at the level of the Grant Agreement, agree on the project major activities, milestones and timeframes to be closely considered under project monitoring and evaluation.

Project Monitoring

70. Project monitoring is the assessment of progress made in a project towards set project targets as set out in the Grant Agreement.

71. The VTF shall, inter alia, use the following methods of project monitoring:

- a. Verification of Submitted Project Reports. The mandatory projects reports that grant recipients are required to provide shall be verified by VTF against the Grant Agreement content with particular reference to project activity schedule and financial expenditure plan.

On verification if projects reports are found to be consistent with Grant Agreement schedules, the VTF will indicate a 'go ahead' and release relevant project funds. However, in the event where reports verification demonstrates an inconsistency with the agreed project plan, the VTF will enter into consultation with the recipient with a view to getting the project back on track.

In addition to regular reports, the grant recipient shall alert the VTF regarding deviations from the agreed project goals and financial terms when such deviations are suspected or become apparent, together with the grant recipient's planned responses to these deviations.

- b. On-site Monitoring Visits by VTF (ATT Secretariat) Staff. When deemed necessary the VTF may dispatch its own (ATT Secretariat) staff to attend selected VTF funded events or consultations as a participant with a mandate to observe if the project is progressing according to plan.
- c. Monitoring by Third Party Stakeholder. VTF can request independent participants or experts at VTF funded events to provide independent reviews on the event organization.

72. With project monitoring being a shared responsibility between the VTF and grant recipient, each of the project monitoring methods shall be deployed by VTF with the full knowledge and cooperation of the recipient.

73. Any monitoring result that points to a project's deviation from the set project activity schedule and budget plan shall lead to a discussion between the VTF and the recipient with a view to get the recipient to institute immediate remedial actions to rescue the project from the detected deviation.

74. Projects with detected deviations may be classified as risk projects that may be subjected to full auditing by appointed professional auditors.

75. Monitoring costs incurred by the recipient shall be included in the project's costs. Monitoring costs incurred by the VTF (ATT Secretariat) staff shall be carried by the VTF.

Project Evaluation

76. Evaluation is a systematic and objective assessment of an ongoing or completed project to determine how a project's funded activities impact on the achievement of a project's objectives and set outcomes. The aim of evaluation is to determine the project's:

- a. Relevance, the extent to which the project is suited to existing priorities and policies.
- b. Effectiveness, the extent to which the project has attained its stated objectives.

- c. Efficiency, the extent to which the project results were attained on time and within budget.
- d. Impact, the positive or negative changes or effects that the project results have on the surrounding circumstances.
- e. Sustainability, the extent to which the projects benefits can continue after the project has finished.

77. Project evaluation shall be primarily carried out by the grant recipient and should be included in the project's final report submitted to the VTF.

78. Evaluation results and lessons learnt shall provide useful information to both VTF and recipients for future decision-making purposes.

Project Auditing

79. Auditing is an objective examination and evaluation of a project's financial statements to ensure that records are a fair and accurate representation of the transactions they claim to represent.

80. In the context of VTF, auditing shall be conducted for purposes of ensuring that VTF is able to manage project financial risk that may be due to a variety of reasons.

81. The grant recipient is required to cooperate with VTF on all audit matters.

82. Though audits can be conducted randomly, projects identified as risk projects shall be particularly considered for auditing.

83. Projects shall be identified as a risk and subjected to auditing if they present one or a combination of the following factors:

- a. The recipient fails to submit the mandatory interim or final report.
- b. The recipient fails to refund unused money to VTF.
- c. The project experiences budget overrun.
- d. The project experiences time overrun.
- e. Financial impropriety is suspected.

84. Where a need for auditing is identified, the VTF shall appoint an independent professional auditor with requisite skills for such assignment.

85. Audit results and recommendations shall be considered by the VTF and could, after consultation with the Selection Committee Chairperson, inter alia lead to the following actions:

- a. Withholding of a project's further grant transfer until the negative audit finding has been adequately addressed by recipient.

- b. Demand for recovery of the funds transferred to the project.
- c. Any other action recommended by the auditors.

Costs for Project Monitoring, Evaluation and Auditing

86. Costs for project monitoring, evaluation and auditing incurred by the grant recipient shall be included in the project's costs.
87. Costs for project monitoring, evaluation and auditing incurred by the VTF (ATT Secretariat) shall be directly carried by the VTF's budget at an amount set by the Selection Committee.

VTF CORPORATE AUDITING

88. The VTF's corporate operations shall be audited on annual basis.
89. An auditor shall be appointed in accordance with Rule 10 of the ATT Financial Rules.
90. The auditor shall issue an audit report that shall accompany the annual VTF substantive report for approval by the Conference of States Parties and presentation to donors.
91. Costs for the VTF's corporate audit shall be borne by the VTF budget.

ENFORCEMENT OF VTF DECISIONS

92. The VTF Principles of Eligibility identify States as the only eligible applicants for VTF assistance. However, the Principles allow States to seek the assistance of partners in the implementation of projects. The identity of project implementing partners and their role in the project should be disclosed in the project proposal.
93. In view of the foregoing, parties to the Grant Agreement shall be the ATT Secretariat and a State that has presented a successful project proposal. Accordingly, the signing State shall directly assume the obligations arising from the Grant Agreement. The involvement of an implementing partner in the project implementation shall not absolve a State from its obligations under the Grant Agreement. To that end, the enforcement of the grant terms and conditions should be directed to the recipient State.
94. With the VTF established under the Treaty, the VTF should, after consultation with the Selection Committee Chairperson, adopt enforcement measures that are consistent with the Treaty spirit particularly Article 19 on dispute resolution. In that connection, the VTF could pursue, by mutual consent, arbitration to enforce provisions of the Grant Agreement.
